

Public Finance Policy Consultant

We are looking for a talented young professional to join our Public Finance practice area, working on research, analysis, modelling, evaluations and policy development related to national, provincial and local government finance. See our [Link] Practice Area [Link] for more information on the Public Finance practice area, including examples of the types of projects we work on.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

- Undergraduate degree in finance, accounting or economics
- Master's degree in any field related to PDG's practice areas
- Strong quantitative analysis skills
- South African citizenship
- Valid driver's license
- 3 years' work experience.

Previous experience in a consulting or public sector financial position will be an advantage. PDG promotes employment equity and previously disadvantaged candidates will be prioritised.

We are a values-based consulting firm and therefore seek candidates who share our values and are passionate about making a contribution in the public sector.

This position is a mid-level consulting position and will require consultants to work relatively independently, with limited supervision from the Practice Area leader. In addition, the consultant will be required to engage with clients, manage small consulting projects and manage junior consultants in small project teams.

Remuneration is based on the experience and value offering which will position the candidate in relation to our standard salary scales. PDG has a strong career development programme and emphasises personal and career growth for all staff. All staff are actively involved in the management and strategic direction of the firm.

This is a permanent position and is based in Kenilworth, Cape Town.

Interested applicants should send a detailed CV and cover letter, together with names and contact details of at least three referees to info@pdg.co.za.
